VOLUME CVI.---NO. 60. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 11, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither

NOR

contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "booze."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates and invigorates stomach, liver and bowels, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood and tones up the system generally.

"Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, exhausting drains, painful periods and kindred ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means selfishness on the part of the dealer who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and we were advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. C. Fox, of 57 E. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then you advised us to get the 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took four bottles of the 'Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery, and you never saw such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every one. I advise parents who have young daughters who suffer from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"DESPISING DOMINION."

Count Tolstoi, in a letter to the London Times, says he regards not only the Russian government, but all governments, as "intricate institutions sanctified by tradition and custom for the purpose of committing by violence and with impunity the most dreadful social crimes."

He, therefore, thinks the efforts of those who wish to improve social life should be directed to the liberation of themselves "from the governments whose futility in these times is becoming more and more obvious. This object could only be attained by the unique means of religiously and morally perfecting separate individuals. The idea is prevalent that the evil accomplished by the "present particularly coarse, cruel, stupid and deceitful Russian government" is due to the fact that the Russian government is not organized on the model of other existing governments, which "are similar institutions for the committal of all kinds of crimes against their peoples." For the purpose of correcting this the people had used all the means at their disposal, "imagining that an alteration of the external forms might alter the essence.

"Such activity," Count Tolstoi says, "is inexpedient and unreasonable, in that the people assert rights which they do not have.

"Violent strife by external means on the part of an insignificant handful of men against a powerful government defending its life is only comical from the point of view of the possibility of success, and piteous as regards the unfortunate misled individuals who perish in the unequal strife.

"The Russian government has no right to claims which do not appeal to the great mass of the people. One hundred million of the peasantry need nothing of these demands, their one desire and expectation being the liberation of the land from the law of property or common ownership of land, matters which are entirely ignored in liberal positions and speeches and only incidentally alluded to in the revolutionary socialistic programme."

Concerning the representation demands, Count Tolstoi says:

"The people in a great mass still believe in autocracy both by reason of inertia and because they think that only through autocracy and through the Czar can they attain this communalization of land. The present activity is pernicious because it distracts the people from the moral perfectioning of separate individuals, whereby only can be obtained the objects towards which those who are fighting the government are striving.

"One cannot participate in political action which draws the people into intrigue, subterfuge, strife and spite extending to murder. Political action not only fails to contribute to the liberation of man from the violence of governments, but on the contrary renders the people more incapable of that vigor which only can liberate them.

"Light-minded people, judging superficially, especially those upset by the butchery in St. Petersburg, thought the chief cause of those events lay in the despotism of the government; and if the autocratic monarchical form of the Russian government is replaced by a constitutional or republican one, then such events could not be repeated.

"But the chief calamity from which the Russian people are suffering is not St. Petersburg events, but the reckless, disgraceful, cruel war instigated by a score of immoral individuals. The war, which already has destroyed hundreds of thousands of Russians, imposes an enormous tax upon the labor of future generations. That which took place in St. Petersburg on January 22 is nothing in comparison to what is taking place in Manchuria."

In conclusion Count Tolstoi says that in America, France, Germany, Japan and England the pernicious character of the governments is so marked that those belonging to those nations point to events in Russia and naively imagine what is done in Russia is done only in Russia, while they enjoy complete freedom and need no improvement of their positions.

"But" he adds, "they are in the most hopeless state of slavery—the slavery of slaves who do not understand that they are slaves and pride themselves on their position as slaves. The fact is that every coercive government is in the essence a great and unnecessary evil. Therefore, the aim both of the Russians and of all men should not be to replace one form of government by another, but to free themselves from every government and abolish it."

Revolution Predicted.

Aaron Emden, who came to Sioux City, Iowa, from Russia four months ago and joined the Russian colony there, yesterday said he received a letter from a member of the Russian revolutionary party saying that April 18 of the Russian calendar, or May 1, Julian calendar, has been named for the opening of the national revolution. Since the St. Petersburg massacre the revolutionists, it is stated, have been repressed until orders could be conveyed to all the cities and provinces for a universal uprising on such a scale that it would be impossible for the government to cope with it. All railroads and industries will be tied up and mobs will take possession of every city, it is said. It is claimed that support of many of the troops is pledged.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At F. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaller, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that doesn't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, MAR. 11, 1905.

OFFICIAL announcement from the White House, published in yesterday's Gazette, that federal officeholders whose services have been satisfactory are to retain their places, has been received with a sigh of relief by all such officials and again calls attention to the President's civil service policy, and if carried out will emphasize Mr. Roosevelt's declaration that he will recognize and reward merit wherever it is to be found. With comparatively very few exceptions, the principal federal offices were filled by President McKinley, and Mr. Roosevelt has made only such changes as he thought were necessary for the good of the public service. He intends now, it is said, to permit all worthy men in office, regardless of pressure from politicians to get them out, to remain in their places, and where new appointments are necessary, he is pursuing, as far as possible, a plan of promotion. Nor does the President, it is said, intend to be limited by party lines in his selection of appointees. The President, it is now stated, believes that political agitation and party rancor have done much toward perpetuating the breach between the North and the South; that this has resulted in harm and that the quickest and most effective way to overcome southern prejudices against his administration is to secure the aid of southern men in the conduct of public affairs.

A PROMINENT New York minister says the United States is on the eve of a religious revival of colossal proportions. He says the movement will be far-reaching and its effects marked. Abont thirty years ago considerable interest in spiritual matters followed the crusade of Moody and Sankey, who after holding many meetings in the country invaded England. They had thousands of hearers, and many had the trend of their lives completely changed by the preaching of Moody and the singing of Sankey. Later on, in 1881, when the revised version of the New Testament made its appearance the demand was phenomenal, and large numbers who never had read the King James translation perused the new book closely. But "the cares of this world, and deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choked the word" in the greater number, until now the world is about at its normal spiritual height; hence the harvest is great and the time ripe for the advent of laborers.

AS ANTICIPATED, the white republicans of New York are bitterly opposing the appointment by the President of Charles Anderson, a colored man, as collector of internal revenue in that State and an effort, it is said, will be made to prevent his confirmation in the Senate. The appointment of Anderson was a reward for the political services he had rendered the republican party among colored voters, and was made without regard to the man's qualifications for the position. This is held by many of Mr. Roosevelt's friends to be directly contrary to his announced intention of selecting the best men available for federal positions. The truth is that a large majority of the white people of the North are as much opposed to colored men holding office in that section as are the southern people in this, but few of them, however, have anything to say on the subject so long as such appointments are made only in the South.

SOME TIME ago an attempt was made to get up a scare concerning the breaking up of the ice in the Potomac and predictions were made that much damage would be done in the Washington harbor. The ice, however, broke up, melted and disappeared without causing injury to anything. Later it was said that owing to the breaking up of the ice in the upper river gorges would form and when they broke damage would surely ensue and bridges be carried away. This prophecy has also proven false, for dispatches received today from the upper country say that the ice has disappeared and the river is in its normal condition. The alarmists will now have to wait till the spring rains.

A HELPLESS cripple from hazing, young Albert De Rome, made his way into a San Francisco police court on crutches yesterday, and swore out warrants for the arrest of the Hopkins art students who made him the victim of their sport. The judge issued the warrants for the arrest of the alleged ringleaders in the hazing which occurred last November, and the charge of assault and battery will be urged. Every one of the students who took part in the disgraceful and cruel affair should be punished to the limit.

THE University of Virginia glee and mandolin clubs gave a fairly creditable concert in this city last night, which was enjoyed by the large audience in attendance and was doubtless profitable to the clubs. But—in the old and, we still claim, better days University of Virginia men stuck close to their books and never went around the country playing mandolins and singing songs in public halls. This we well know is an unpopular old fogy sentiment in this day and generation, but it is true, all the same.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., March 11.

At today's session of the congess of mothers, polygamy and the fight the Congress has waged against Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, was the principle topic of discussion. It was brought up in the annual reports of the national officers. The mother's congress took the initative in the crusade against Senator Smoot and the president, Mrs. Schroff, in her opening address gave a detailed account of it.

Although it is understood that a selection has been made of a Fourth Assistant Postmaster General to fill the vacancy caused by the recent retirement of Jos. L. Bristow, of Kansas, Postmaster General Cortelyou is not yet ready to announce the name. Louis A. Coolidge, the well known newspaper correspondent and assistant secretary of the national republican committee, could have had the post, but declined. It is currently reported that Edwin C. Madden, of Detroit, third Assistant, and W. S. Shallenberger, 2nd Assistant, of Pennsylvania, have decided to retire and that they will tender their resignations to the Postmaster General within a few days.

The Senate was not in session today and but few people were about the Capitol.

Tom Fields, the lawyer against whom there is a charge of embezzling funds belong to the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, who was arrested in Chatham, N. Y., arrived here last night and was immediately taken to police headquarters. An effort will be made today to secure bail. In case of conviction Fields can be sentenced to not less than two years nor more than ten years. The court this morning fixed Fields' bond at $5,000, and it is now being executed.

Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, does not believe that peace will follow the battle of Mukden. In speaking today of the probable results of the battle, he said: "After Liao Yang, there was talk of peace. Russia's answer was reinforcements. Like Liao Yang, Mukden is the scene of another retreat, and again Russia's answer will be large reinforcements."

Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, had a talk with the President this morning on the rate legislation question "We are going to hold a meeting of the committee on Tuesday," said Senator Elkins, "and will go right ahead from now on in order to become thoroughly familiar with the subject before Congress meets again. Extra session? I don't know anything about it and am not going to inquire. I never disturb a sleeping dog. As soon as I learned that the danger of a spring session was over I was happy enough to let the matter drop. I should think, though, that November would be a pretty good time for calling it, if it is to be called.".

Vice President Fairbanks and Senator Foraker, who are both supposed to be nursing Presidential booms, met in President Roosevelt's office this morning and good naturedly submitted to the jokes of half a dozen Senators and Congressmen gathered there. Neither would admit, when he emerged from the room, that he was concerned at all in the political situation four years hence. "It's a long way ahead," said Senator Foraker, "and I've got lots of trouble on my hands now—plenty at any rate to keep me busy." Vice President Fairbanks only smiled when he was asked about his "boom."

President Roosevelt has promulgated several amendments to the civil-service rules, the general effect of which is to increase the scope of what is known as the competitive service, and to make some changes in permitting appointments to certain positions of especially qualified persons, without examination. By the most important of these amendments inspectors of surveyors general and district land offices, and special agents of general land office are taken out of the excepted classes. These positions were filled formerly by the Secretary of the Interior without competition. An exception is made in the case of five positions of special agents of the general land office. These five excepted men are to investigate fraudulent entries and other matters of a criminal nature. They are still to be appointed without examination. Another amendment provides that a retired army officer, who has the required qualifications for the position may be appointed as a superintendent of an Indian school.

During the session of Congress just closed President Roosevelt signed 1,842 bills. The list includes 288 public bills, 1,569 private bills, 34 public resolutions and one private resolution. At the session of the 58th Congress, preceeding the last, the President signed 2,199 bills.

Explosion of a Bomb.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail telegraphs as follows: "At 4 o'clock this (Saturday) morning an explosion in the center of the city at Vosnacensky prospect and Bolchoiamorskais, facing the Isaac Cathedral, blew out the interior of an apartment house, killing four men and four women. It undoubtedly was the accidental explosion of an anarchist bomb, killing those who intended to use it."

St. Petersburg, March 11.—The investigation of the explosion of a bomb which occurred in the Bristol Hotel last night shows that it happened in the room of an Englishman named McCullock, and was the result of an accident. The police believe that McCullock was a socialist and that he was planning an assassination. The investigation shows that the bomb was being filled and apparently dropped to the floor. McCullock was killed by the discharge and four other inmates of the hotel were injured. McCullock had been living at the hotel for a month and had intended to leave today. The hotel caught fire after the explosion, but the blaze was extinguished in a short time. The explosion wrecked the room in which it occurred. The furniture was splintered and parts thrown through the window into St. Isaac's Square. The Bristol Hotel is located very near the offices of the Council of State. and the explosion caused a great deal of excitement in the neighborhood.

News of the Day.

A legal question which has arisen in Berlin is whether a pearl found by a lady customer while eating oysters in a restaurant belongs to the finder or to the proprietor of the restaurant.

A wildcat, poor and famished, attacked a large fox in the outskirts of Cornwall Bridge, a Connecticut village, Thursday. The cat was having the better of the combat, when Charles Dobson, a hunter, came across the animals and shot both of them.

Thursday night Mount Vesuvius, which never has been completely inactive, was more agitated than usual. Incandescent lava, accompanied by flashes of light, was frequently thrown out. There is reason to expect greater activity shortly.

Georgia Congressmen, returning from Washington, report that President Roosevelt, as an evidence of his good will toward the South, is prepared to offer a federal position to Mrs. John B. Gordon, widow of the famous Confederate leader. The President is considering the appointment of Mrs. Gordon to a remunerative federal office, possibly that of postmistress of Atlanta. It is possible, of course, that Mrs. Gordon does not care for and would not accept a political appointment, but President Roosevelt is known to have the appointment in mind.

Virginia News.

Senator Thomas S. Martin has accepted the invitation to act as alumni orator at the installation of President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia, on April 13.

The Colonial Dames of Virginia have set aside $500 for a silver punch bowl for the battleship Virginia, now nearly completed at Newport News. It was by the special direction of President McKinley that the ship was named, in response to a personal appeal of Dames, who visited the White House.

Philip McIntyre, a Tennessee lawyer, was taken to the penitentiary at Richmond, Va., yesterday to serve one year. He has been put in stripes and will likely be assigned to some clerical work. McIntyre, who was arrested in Norfolk, is wanted in Mexico and in a number of States for forgery. He is 67 years old.

In the Corporation Court of Lynchburg, yesterday, the case of Lillie Viar, the 19-year-old colored girl, who, by Mrs. Sallie Hanna's direction, sprinkled "rough on rats" in the flour used by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Faulkner and others, in February, came up. At the request of Commonwealth's Attorney Yancey a nolle prosequi was entered in her case, as it was claimed she did not know the nature of the powder she used and that she bore no malice towards the Faulkners. Judge Christian placed her under bond of $500 in her own recognizance to keep the peace and be of good behavior for 12 months.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings of the Court of Appeals yesterday:

Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Cromwell, administrator, argued and submitted.

Davis's administratrix and others vs. Davis and others, partly argued and continued.

Next cases to be called:

Murray and Anderson vs. Moore.

Lawler and others vs. French and Company and Williamson vs. Southern Railway Company, being Nos. 65, 66 and 67 on argument docket.

Tra in Struck Boulder.

No flood since 1888 has wrought such damage as was done by the high waters at Morgantown, W. Va., yesterday the Monon river reaching the 26 foot stage. Decker's and Dunkard's creeks and the Cheat river were higher than since 1888. The Baltimore and Ohio and Morgantown and Kingwood railroads were both paralyzed hereabouts, and, to add to the general distress of travel, the early morning train on the Baltimore and Ohio to Pittsburg struck an immense boulder a half mile from Morgantown and was wrecked. It will be at least four days before trains can be run on the Morgantown and Kingwood road. The Standard Oil Company pumping station has six feet of water in it, and will not be able to resume business for a week. The The Morgantown crematory is partially destroyed, and the filtering plant of the water company is flooded. It is stated that Lock and Dam No. 11, on the Monongahela creek, are entirely submerged and great quantities of lumber and timber are floating down the Monofn and Cheat rivers. Lawrence Martin, or Deklow, fell into Deckers creek, while crossing a wire bridge, and it is thought, was drowned.

Will Mr. Lowry Get the Plum?

It is now stated that Internal Revenue Collector Asa Rogers, of the Richmond District, will be displaced and that his first deputy, E. O. Dyer, who was a schoolmate of Hon. Geo. B. Cortelyou, now Postmaster General, will probably be appointed. Wm. Mahone, jr., of Petersburg, is also mentioned. It has been thought for some time by the friends of Hon. M. K. Lowry, of Stafford, that he would probably be appointed to this position.—[Fredericksburg Lance.

No Advance in Soft Coal Rates.

The railroads engaged in the transportation of soft coal from the mining regions of Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia have decided to continue the present rates on tidewater shipments during the next year, from April 1, 1905, to April 1, 1906. There has been a wrong impression that a decision was reached to advance these rates and that the effect would be to slightly increase the retail price of such coal.

KUROPATKIN RETREATING.

After an enormous sacrifice of human life on both sides the Japanese yesterday captured Mukden and Fushun, taking many prisoners, great quantities of stores and a number of heavy guns.

General Kuropatkin notified the Emperor that his army was retiring on Tieling in three columns, the first along the railway, the second along the Mandarin road and the third along a road farther east.

St. Petersburg is full of rumors, among them being one that General Kuropatkin escaped and another that he has surrendered, with his entire remaining army.

General Kuropatkin's latest telegram to the Emperor is as follews: "I am retiring on Tieling in three columns, the first along the railway, the second along the Mandarin road, the third along a road farther east."

Pessimism reigns in St. Petersburg. A wave of anger rises up against Kuropatkin's conduct of the campaign and also against his action as Minister of War in failing to keep the army ready for emergencies. The censorship at first allowed only the publication of an abbreviated telegram from the commanding general, according to which the Japanese were occupying fresh positions north of Mukden, increasing the danger of Russian retreat being cut. Only late yesterday evening came the not unexpected news that Mukden fell at 10 o'clock in the morning.

It is stated that General Kuropatkin has escaped. Another report ran in the streets of St. Petersburg last night, namely, that Kuropatkin has surrendered with his entire army, showing the wildness of rumors consequent upon overstrung public feeling.

It is stated that as a result of a largely attended council of war General Kuropatkin is to be recalled. General Dragomiroff refused to vote, his known enmity to Kuropatkin preventing him.

Fighting continues at various points, and Kuropatkin is making a desperate effort to save the greater portion of his army, but the Russians in their retreat are flanked on either side by a Japanese column and fighting a rear-guard action with the Japanese center army. Kuroki appears to be forcing the Russians against General Nogi's armies and General Kamamura's forces are moving to cut them off. Should Kuropatkin take to the mountains he will be hemmed in and starved into surrender.

Russian Embassy officials in Paris express a belief that, while General Kuropatkin has been defeated, the real struggle between the two armies will take place at Harbin.

Wednesday and Thursday were bloody days north and northeast of Mukden, the slaughter being frightful and corpses being seen everywhere.

General Oyama cables his army is too busy to take an account of the prisoners, supplies and munitions he captured at Mukden.

In Pekin a belief prevails that the repeated defeats suffered by the Russians bring peace clearly within sight.

Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky, it is stated, will reinforce the Russian third Pacific squadron, which is too weak to cross the Indian ocean alone.

Generals Stoessel and Grippenberg will be tried by a military court.

COLLAPSE OF STRIKE.

As was stated in yesterday's Gazette, Grand Chief Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, has revoked the charter of the striking Interborough engineers in New York.

Mr. Stone says that the decision of the grand council is final and that the New York engineers belonging to subdivision No. 150 could not be reinstated except upon a majority vote at a convention of the brotherhood.

The strike on the subway and elevated lines in New York seems to be collapsing. Yesterday afternoon a general attempt was made on the part of the former employes to recover their lost positions, and the announcement that the local union had been expelled from the Brotherhood of Engineers had a depressing effect upon the strikers.

The offices of the company, in the Park Row building, and of the division superintendents were besieged by men who had gone out.

An official of the company said that there were less than 1,000 places to be filled, and that the former employes would have to take their chances, just as if they had never worked for the company. This official said that the management of the company realized that many of the men had been forced to go out by the leaders and that against such men there would be no discrimination. In a number of cases wives came to appeal for the reinstatement of their husbands.

The biggest crowds since the strike began flocked to the uptown subway stations during the morning rush hours. At the Ninety-sixth street station, while the platforms were jammed to their fullest capacity, two persons were severely injured in the crush. One of them, a woman, fell in the narrow space between the platform and the car and her leg was badly crushed. A man's leg was caught in the heavy sliding door of a car severely hurt. Many others were roughly handled in the crush. These conditions were repeated at many other points along the line, but no more serious accidents were reported.

The severely taxed surface lines, which have been called upon to handle an enormously increased traffic since the strike began, also had their troubles. Accidents on both the Eighth avenue and Columbus avenue lines during the height of the morning rush, blocked the tracks and resulted in increased congestion for a time. The other surface lines in the uptown district were being operated without difficulty, except for the greatly increased crowds, which were diverted to them by the conditions on the Eighth avenue and Columbus avenue branch.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

RETREAT A ROUT.

Russians Fleeing in Disorder—Army Being Cut up—Enormous Losses—Kuropatkin Surrounded.

Tokio, March 11.—The lastest dispatches from the front indicate that the Russian retreat has become a rout. The Russians are flying northward, with the Japanese following them closely. So vigorous and relentless has been the pursuit that whole division of the enemy have been cut into small sections A wedge was driven into the Russian center on the Hun river, on which Kuropatkin relied, in a great measure, to cover his retreat and the victorious Japanese are rushing toward the north. By this movement the Russians have been enveloped between the wedge and General Oku's army on the west. In this position the retreat lost all semblance of order, the Russians flying wildly.

Russians lost heavily during thess manoeuvres. The heavy guns of the Japanese were trained on the routed sections and wrought awful havoc in the ranks of the unprotected enemy, whose only thought was to get beyond range.

By the wedge movement the large force of the Russians was corraled, The Russians are now fighting desperately to pierce the cordon. Many of the military experts here are of the opinion that General Nogi, with the Port Arthur veterans, has cut his way through on the north and will prevent this.

The Japanese are pursuing the same tactics of cutting up the enemy into sections in their attacks in other directions. The enveloping movement has succeeded, as reported by Field Marshal Oyama, and the Japanese are directing their energies now to the annihilation of the subforces or forcing them to surrender.

It now seems inevitable but that the Japanese movement will succeed and that the entire Russian army will be cut up. The Russians have lost practically all their heavy guns, and their hurried retreat offers no opportunity for preparing defenses to meet the Japanese attack.

Advices are being received constantly, and these indicate that Gen. Nogi has completed effective junoture with the forces of General Kuroki on the east, thus completing the cordon. The extent of the Russian casualties is still in doubt, but it is known that the losses of guns and ammunition are enormous. It is impossible to obtain even approximate figures as to the number of men Kuropatkin has lost, but local estimates place the number of prisoners that have been taken already at between 20,000 and 50,000.

It is not clear whether General Kuropatkin had planned to make a stand and hold his line north of the Hun river or whether he retired too late to accomplished the concentration of his forces after withdrawing from that position.

If the Japanese forces succeed in barring the retreat by way of Fushun, and Tieling only a remnant of General Kuropatkin's army can escape.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—Nine hundred officers of the Manchurian army have signed a round robin addressed to Gen. Kuropatkin, demanding the conclusion of hostilities owing to the menace of a famine. The troops are discouraged as the result of the chronic failure of their efforts.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—Every effort is being made by the officials to conceal the enormity of the Russian disaster from the people. The general public is not yet aware of Kuropatkin's serious position. The officials maintain a confident front, saying that he will undoubtedly be able to extricate himself.

With General Oku's Army (Undated).—We captured Sujatou, where the main Russian supply depot was located, after a desperate conflict, securing enormous quantities of supplies, including 60,000 rifles and cartridges.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—Your correspondent hears a rumor which as yet he has not been able to confirm, that the Czar is considering the summoning of a special council to consider conditions of peace. The informant states that this does not necessarily mean that peace will surely follow, for after taking the opinion of his advisors, the Czar may decide to continue the struggle. Almost every body that your correspondent meets says that the battle of Mukden should end the war, but adds that as soon as hostilities end, the government must prepare to resume the struggle some time in the future. The general depression is very acute.

Last Act in the Strike.

New York, March 11.—With the strike of the employes of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company completely broken, the officials of the company are giving their attention today to bringing the transportation facilities up to normal on the elevated and subway lines. Nearly 2,000 of the strikers have applied for work but less than 200 were given their positions back. The company has determined to rigidly enforce its forty-year age limit in dealing with all of the strikers, who seek their old jobs. This will bar out nearly sixty per cent. of the motormen. The strike leaders were still positive this morning that the strike would be a success. They were alone in their belief. The employes or the road who did not go on strike will be rewarded with two weeks' extra pay. This means every one from Vice President Bryan and General Manager Hedley to the office boy. Some 2,000 employes remained with the company.

What hope the leaders of the strike had for its success must have died out today, for hundreds of men applied at the company's offices for their old positions, and these who persevered in standing by the union were but a scattered few at strikers headquarters.

The headquarters of the strikers this morning, was steeped in gloom, and the language uttered against the leaders served to make the atmosphere still more blue. Jenckes and Pepper were eagerly sought by strikers, who had something to say to them. They were among those absent.

The Chadwick Case.

Cleveland, O., March 11.—Mrs. Chadwick was as calm and courageous today as she has been on any day of the trial. As it was generally believed that this was to be the last day, some of her friends feared she might give way to the strain. Her son, Emil Hoover, was at her side to comfort her. Attorney Dawley's opening argument to the jury for the defense was along emotional lines, but the prisoner endured the ordeal without tears. Dawley told the jury that the conditions were auspicious for the defendant. He jeered at Sullivan for having brought Carnegie to Cleveland from Florida and not placing him on the stand. "Why was he brought here?" asked Dawley. Then he said he did not like the notion of attacking the woman, and letting the man go. It was a repetiton of Adam's cowardice. Dawley contended that the evidence showed that Mrs. Chadwick had deposited $104,000 in notes with the bank and had drawn out only $94,000.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

Elmira, N. Y., March 11.—After making a vain attempt to kill Ada Howes while returning from a party this morning, George Fenton, a street car conductor, shot and killed himself. Fenton fired two shots at the girl. One of the bullets missed and the other was turned aside by a corset stay. Fenton thought the girl was dead when he turned the weapon on himself.

The Baltic Fleet.

Glasgow, Scotland, March 11.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Herald states that the Russian admiralty denies that it has any intention of recalling the Baltic fleet as has been reported.

The Colorado Governorship.

Denver, March 11.—"Governor Adams will resist with force, if need be, any attempt of an unconstitutionally elected governor usurping his office." This statement, given out by a democratic leader, means that if either Peabody or McDonald is declared elected, Adams will resist because he has been advised that the legislature having once declared him governor cannot rescind its action. Adams also has been advised that the lieutenant governor cannot constitutionally be made governor.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 11.—The stock market opened generally stronger and closed strong and active at about the top prices for the leading issues. Bonds were strong.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Fire destroyed St. Joseph's Hungarian Catholic Church at Hazelton, Pa., this morning. The loss is estimated at $15,000.

The coroner has been notified that dredgers at work on the Delaware river, have brought to the surface off the Tioga street, Philadalphia wharf, the corpse of a man sewed in a bag. Indications point to murder.

Edward Ryan, aged 101 years is dead at Buffalo, N. Y. He was born in Ireland. The theory that the use of tobacco shortens life, is disproved for Ryan had chewed the weed incessantly for eighty years.

Scores of fortunes were made on the New York stock exchange this week by the Reading pool that sent the stock from 65 to par. One member of the pool withdrew with $250,000 to his credit. His firm at the same time sent a check for $117,000 to a customer who had been carrying 3,500 shares from the beginning of the pool's operations.

Seven persons were hurt in a trolley accident at Pittsburg, Pa., this morning, when a car on the Carnegie line while rounding a curve on a long and steep grade leading into the west end jumped the track and plunged over an embankment into a run 10 feet deep, alighting on one end. The passengers were thrown into the forward end of the car in a heap.

[Virginia Horse Show Dates.

About 20 members of the Virginia Horse Show Association met in the parlors of the New Willard Hotel, in Washington, yesterday and, at the request of Mr. H. Rozier Dulany, fixed the date for the coming show for June 15 and 16 at Richmond. Mr. Dulany appeared for the Upperville Horse Show Association, which was admitted to membership. Mr. Charles Mulliken, of Boyce, was re-elected president, and Mr. J. Jenkins Davies of Manassas secretary and treasurer. A rule was adopted allowing an appeal by an exhibitor to the association when debarred from exhibiting by any of the affiliated organizations.

The association designated the following dates for the shows of the various associations: Keswick, May 25; Leesburg, June 7 and 8; Upperville, June 15 and 16; Fredericksburg, July 12 and 13; Culpeper, July 4 and 5; Manassas, July 26 and 27; Orange, July 31 and August 1; Charlottesville, August 3 and 4; Staunton, August 8, 9 and 10; Front Royal, August 21 and 22; Harrisonburg, August 15, 16 and 17; Berryville, August 24 and 25; Warrenton, August 30 and 31; Lynchburg, October 3, 4, 5 and 6; Richmond, October 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15; Norfolk, October 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21.

On Davis Monument.

Mrs. Margaret H. Hayes, of Colorado Springs, Col., daughter of the late Jefferson Davis, has written a letter urging the Confederate veterans of Mississippi to use every endeavor to have the State of Mississippi recognized on the Davis monument to be erected at Richmond, Va. She says her father always regarded himself as a Mississippian, taught his children as such, and that it will be a great disappointment to the family "if the most beloved state of Davis is ignored on the monument." Mrs. Hayes asks that Major Lowry and other leading Confederate veterans make efforts to have the inscription changed and says it would have been better had the widow of the dead chieftain written the inscription, as she best knew what her husband would have wanted on the monument.

A Business Necessity.

The Indianapolis News chronicles the dissolution of a dry goods firm at Marion, Ind., which for seventeen years had maintained an up-hill fight against modern business methods, only to be beaten at last. The firm in question had the best site in the town, and hosts of friends; and when its field was invaded by other houses that advertised, it refused to throw its money away for newspaper space. Gradually the new stores won the patronage of the old one; new customers failed to appear to take the place of the deserters, and the firm that tried to get along without advertising has finally relinquished its business. Which demonstrates again that advertising is not a luxury, but a necessity.

Mr. Crupper to Retire.

The announcement that Mr. Joseph L. Crupper, who for the past seven years has well and efficiently filled the position of postmaster at Alexandria, will not again be an applicant for that place, will be a surprise to the community at large and will be regretted by his large circle of friends. Mr. Crupper's excellent management of the office has won for him the endorsement of practically the entire business community which would have urged his reappointment if he had again applied for the position, but owing to other engagements he has decided to relinquish the postmastership at the end of his term and devote himself to his rapidly increasing business in Washington, which now requires almost his entire attention. Mr. Crupper, it is understood, has for some time past contemplated this step but was prevailed upon by his friends to wait until his term of office expired. It is known that the demands made upon him and the many things expected of him by the rank and file of the republican party in this city, of which for some time past he has been the leader, have been distasteful to him, so he has decided to become a private citizen, and having recently resigned as chairman of his party in Alexandria he will retire as postmaster at the end of his term and, as above stated, devote his time and talents to his own private business affairs.

The several avowed candidates, and many others who will no doubt enter their names as contestants, will doubtless be rejoiced to know that Mr. Crupper will not be a candidate for reappointment at the close of his term which will expire in April, 1906. Early in this year Mr. Crupper intimated to a few close friends that he was not sure that he would again be a candidate for postmaster, because, even if successful in being named for a third term, he was in doubt as to the wisdom of accepting. Since that time, or for the past month, Mr. Crupper says he has become fully convinced that in a year or so the Alexandria postoffice will require, and should receive, a considerable portion of the personal supervision of the postmaster. The business of the office is expanding monthly, and as Mr. Crupper's private business also requires a fair amount of time and attention, he was not willing to slight the one or sacrifice the other; hence he has reached his conclusions, and made his plans after devoting much thought to the matter. Mr. Crupper's determination not to be an applicant for reappointment was in no way influenced by Mr. Park Agnew's resignation. Close as are the political and personal relations of these two gentlemen, there is no "me too" business involved. Several days ago Mr. Crupper said he would make known his intentions on Saturday (today) through the medium of the Gazette. This was before the conflicting reports as to the President's policy concerning official terms; so Mr. Crupper's determination was not influenced by Mr. Agnew's resignation on the one hand, or Postmaster General Cortelyou's declaration after the Cabinet meeting yesterday "that postmasters were not to be barred from further service simply because of eight years' service," on the other. Mr Crupper, as stated above, will complete his two terms of four years each in April, 1906. The office business has greatly increased during his term, and has been administered to the entire satisfaction of every person in the city. The scramble for the place with the salary of nearly $2,500 will now begin in earnest.

The Collectorship.

The announcement in yesterday's Gazette of the determination of President Roosevelt to appoint Mr. L. P. Summers, of Abingdon, to the position of Collector of Internal Revenue for this district in place of Mr. Park Agnew, while regretted by all Alexandrians, was not surprising, from the fact that it was known that Col. Slemp had been persistently advocating his candidacy and urging his work in the interests of the republican party during the late presidential campaign.

The President, however, had intimated that he had no disposition to disturb faithful officeholders who had honestly won their spurs in devotion to the party's welfare, and this had shed a faint ray of hope into the camp of those who had previously been uneasy from the fact that the executive had previously observed that eight years' service was sufficient for government officeholders. The outcome has shown the danger of relying upon intimations coming from Mr. Roosevelt, as his action in connection with the position of collector is a fair sample of his capriciousness.

When Mr Agnew was seen this morning by a representative of the Gazette, he could add but little to what has been said above, save that he had no criticism whatever to make upon the action of the President in deferring to Col. Slemp. He also recognized the earnest labor of Mr. Summers for the welfare of the party. Mr. Agnew said he had no complaint to urge, he had ever been treated kindly by the administration, and his record was satisfactory in every particular.

When interrogated as to the probability of the office being removed from Alexandria Mr. Agnew could give no positive answer from the fact that such a change cannot be made at the ipse dixit of the collector; a change of location can only be made by the authorities in Washington, and as between $60,000 and $70,000 have recently been expended on the public building in this city in order to accommodate the internal revenue officers, a change of location is improbable, to say the least. Besides the contiguity of Alexandria to Washington is a desideratum not to be overlooked. Mr. Agnew was commissioned May 1, 1897, and by the first of May will have served eight years. He has a splendid record as collector and his endorsements from the business interests of Northern Virginia and Washington city are very heavy.

It is not thought that the new collector will make many material changes among the subordinates in the office, as most of this class are serving under civil service regulations.

Concert.

As anticipated, a large and fashionable audience including many from Seminary Hill assembled at the Opera House last night to greet the University of Virginia Glee and Mandolin Clubs. A large number of ladies of this city were patronesses of the concert, which was under the auspicies of the Old Dominion Boat Club. Musical tributes to the orange and blue opened the concert and the well-known colors appeared also in the draperies of the stage and in the Virginia pennants that were in evidence. The entertainment was a typical college glee club concert, medleys, of course, predominating and holding a firm place in the favor of the audience. Both vocally and instrumentally the entertainment was good, the latter being the better, however. After paying their respects to their university the Mandolin Club played a very attractive potpourri of melodies from "The Sultan of Sulu," then the Glee Club contributed a fund of melodious information on a variety of topics. A medley commenced by informing the audience that "I'm so crazy," then giving the impression that a lady named "Julia" had something to do with the state of mental disorder, and then sang "Good-by, Little Girl, Good-by," presumable to the young lady, only to inform her afterward that "I Was Only Teasing You." After this reference was made to Cleopatra and apparently apropos of nothing, the audience was informed that the singers were going "Back, Back, Back to Baltimore," for which purpose "All Aboard for Dreamland" was called, and the whole jolly, inconsistent, incomprehensible, rollicking stunt ended with a tribute to the "Old Virginia Blue"—for of such things are college medleys made. Another number was that given by Messrs. Luck, McVeigh, Gilee and Edgar, who sang a solo about the rural lovers who sat one day by the old oak tree, to whom the dove said "Coo, coo, come along and woo," and the crow said "Caw, caw, you're the worst I ever saw," and who continued in their lovemaking just as if the birds were not speaking. The quartette, who were not very well matched as to size, added much to the fun of this song by the practical illustrations of the affectionate attitudes of the rural lovers. The fortunes of Bohunkus and Josephus were told in detail, even down to the days on which they wore their new shoes and the location of their seats in the theatre. Their ultimate destination—Bohunkus up to heaven and Josephus to another place—was reported also. Delightful solos were sung by Mr. W. McJames and Mr. L. G. Adams and, in addition to the selections by the Mandolin Club, which were played with spirit and rhythmic precision, there were some attractive instrumental selections by Messrs. Robert Rosser and F. M. Rummel. The Glee Club was directed by Mr. R. B. Crawford and the Mandolin Club by Mr. Robert Rosser, with Mr. C. P. Bonn as accompanist.

After the concert the members of the clubs were handsomely entertained at the residence of Mr. A. D Brockett by the Alexandria alumni of the University. Later they left on their return to the University.

Brilliant Reception.

One of the society events of the winter was the brilliant reception given by the Alumni Association of Alexandria to the "Glee and Mandolin Clubs," of the University of Virginia, at the handsome residence of Mr. A. D. Brockett, on north Washington street, last night. The entire first floor was superbly decorated with palms and cut flowers, the Univerity colors being most artistically arranged. The "orange and blue" were also the colors used for the beautifully appointed table. Mrs. Brockett was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Marshall King. Mrs. Mushbach poured the coffee, assisted by Misses Edith Ramsay, Susie Herbert, Eva Dent, Lucy Douglas, Elmily Elliott, Eliza Uhler, Mary Lloyd, Mary Snowden, Mary Dent, Elsie Danenhower, Nannie and Bessie Jones, Elizabeth Herbert, Grace and Lisa Anderson, Martha Brockett, Mrs. Scott, Miss Fannie Dixon and Miss Ida Hanckel, of Charlottesville. After partaking of delicious refreshments the University men left in order to catch the late train for Charlottesville. It is to be hoped that Alexandria will again have the pleasure of another of their delightful concerts.

The River.

The Potomac has almost assumed its normal condition, and save for the appearance of fragments of ice which pass down in the channel but few evidences of the recent blockade can be seen.

The river steamers are now running as usual, and they are being taxed to their fullest capacity in the transportation of the enormous amount of freight which has accumulated during the past few weeks.

The steamer Northumberland arrived up this morning. She now has painted on her bow "Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company" instead of "Weems Line." She is the first vessel of the fleet to start out under the new name. The steamers Anne Arundel and Northumberland will be used on the Baltimore and lower river route and trips from this city will be made every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, and the trips from Baltimore here will be made Saturday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Capt. William Geoghegan will command the steamer Anne Arundel and Capt. Joseph Smith the steamer Northumberland.

The tugboats W. H. Yerkes and Camilla passed up to Washington yesterday evening with eleven oyster boats in tow.

Harbormaster Sutton of Washington yesterday sent to this city for the tugboats George W. Pride and Rosalie which will be used in connection with forcing the ice which has accumulated at points above the bridges into the channel in order that it may run off.

The Baltimore and Ohio transfer tugboat Brewerton broke one of the blades of her propeller Thursday and the tugboat Juno is being used in the transfer service.

It is not thought that the breaking up of the ice and the recent rains will cause any serious trouble in the river.

Personal.

The Havana, Cuba, "The Lucha," of March 5, says: "A box party last Sunday night at the Payret Theatre, which was given by Mr. J. Ellis Norris, general manager for the R. G. Dun Co., and also representative of the Dramatic Mirror in this city, consisted of the Chinese Minister, the Hon. Mr. Liao, and his wife; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Marshall, Miss Maria Lopez Zayas and Mr. D. B. Washburn, the well known American lawyer of the city."

Mrs. J. H. Bitzer who was taken sick last Monday night and who has been confined to her room ever since, is improving.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Thomas Gibson, colored, arrested by Officers Gill and Sherwood charged with assaulting and beating Kate Gibson, also colored, was fined $5.

John Dogan, colored, arrested by Officers Arrington, Beach and Sherwood charged with assaulting Hattie Ewell, also colored, was fined $5.

James Beach, colored, arrested by ficer Mayhugh charged with disorderly conduct and being drunk, was fined $5.

Mary Williams, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Sherwood charged with contempt of court, was fined $2.50.

Attacked and Robbed.

Mr. William Duncan, of this city, was held up, badly beaten, and robbed by three men on Fourteenth street along the Monument grounds, in Washington, early yesterday morning. During the hold-up Mr. Duncan was struck a severe blow on the head with a black-jack by one of the assailants, and he was taken to the Emergency Hospital. Duncan had been spending the evening in Washington and was passing along the corner of Fourteenth and B streets when he was accosted by a man who asked him for a match and walked beside him for about half a block when two other men jumped from behind a tree. The three men then overpowered their victim and succeeded in getting away with $6 in money and a gold watch.

For Postmaster.

Mr. T. F. Burroughs, who for many years past has been the efficient Assistant Postmaster at this city, serving faithfully under both republican and democratic administrations, has issued the following circular which he is addressing to his numerous friends: "I expect to become an applicant for the postmastership of this city, at the expiration of the term of Postmaster Crupper, which occurs in a little over one year from this time, and ask you to kindly withhold your endorsement for the position until I shall have had the opportunity to submit my claims to you."

Kersand's Georgia Minstrels.

The best colored minstrel show in the South is Billy Kersand's Big Colored Minstrels, made up of genuine comedians, vocalists, dancers and clever specialty artists who will hold forth at the Opera House Tuesday, March 14. With Billy Kersands at the head of the best colored talent on the stage, they will doubtless test the capacity of the house. With Marsh Craig, Kid Langford, the Alabama quartette and Cook and Jones, Billy Kersands will have the pleasure of presenting the best colored show ever organized.

The Market.

There was a slightly increased supply of country produce in market this morning. Eggs had fallen to 25 cents a dozen, but butter had jumped to 40 cents a pound. Poultry was disposed of at former prices. But few vegetables were displayed. The fish benches were filled with fine shad, herring, black bass, sea bass and other varieties of the finny tribe. Prices are still high.

Banquet.

Owing to the large number expected to be present tonight at the banquet to be given by Branch 63, of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association to the National President of that order, Mr. D. A. Hayes, the place of holding the banquet has been changed from the Hotel Rammel to Odd Fellows' Hall. Messrs. Rammel, however, will be the caterers for the occasion.

The Approaching Fishery.

Gillers and seinehaulers are preparing for the spring fishery, and all are anticipating a successful season. Some of the local fishermen are already at work and they report satisfactory results. Wm. Sisson and others employed with him yesterday caught 400 pounds of black bass and a number of catfish.

The Late Miss Fisher.

The remains of Miss Rebecca Fisher, who died at Charlottesville, Thursday while on a visit to her niece, Mrs. Alexander Whitlock, of that place, have been brought to this city and her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. The deceased had been a sufferer from heart disease, and her death was sudden.

An Explanation.

The crash heard in the northeastern section of the city Thursday night was caused by the fall of a fence wall in an alley on the east side of Fairfax street, between Cameron and Queen. The wall was about ten feet high and its collapse sounded as though a heavy explosion had occurred.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather has been fair and mild today.

The University of Virginia Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs were yesterday entertained at the New Hotel Rammel upon their arrival in this city.

People who came from Fairfax county to market today say the mud is causing a serious barrier to transportation. Some of the horses attached to market wagons sank up to their knees on their way to this city.

The trailer of an electric train on its way to Mount Vernon early this morning became detached and began descending Mount Vernon hill. The motor car proceeded after the runaway and in doing so a collision occurred which damaged both cars and caused considerable delay in travel. No one was hurt.

Rev. J. F. B. Tinling, B. A., of London, Eng., who will spend eight days in Alexandria holding gospel temperance meetings, is an author of considerable note, having written on a variety of subjects. A book of special interest is "The Poppy Plague, a History of the British Opium Policy."

Mr. J. D. Knight has been given the contract by Mr. Charles H. Zimmerman for improving and remodeling his restaurant in Market alley. The saloon is to be made one of the handsomest in the city, and fitted with all modern improvements, at a cost of about $1,500.

The large wagon belonging to Corby Bros., of Washington, became stuck in the mud while on the way to this city at an early hour this morning and the load of bread and biscuits did not reach here until about 10 o'clock.

The committee on public property has awarded the contract for the improvements at the fish wharf to Mr. A. Dean, whose bill for dredging was 19½ cents per cubic yard and $3.50 for drawing the old piles at the wharf.

The close conjunction of the moon with the planets Jupiter and Venus presented a brilliant spectacle in the western heavens early last night. This occurs every two years.

A car while being transferred from the B. & O. barge this morning jumped the track and crashed through the floating dock at the foot of Wilkes street. The transfer service was impeded some time by the accident.

The bright sunshine of today and the spring temperature brought many visitors to Washington to this city. The electric trains transported numbers to and from Mount Vernon.

No business was transacted last night at the meeting of the Relief fire company for want of a quorum. A special meeting will be held Monday night.

There were four prisoners and eleven lodgers at the station house last night.

Church Notes.

Rev. F. T. Little, D. D., president of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, will preach in that church tomorrow morning. Dr. Little is a speaker of recognized ability and those who have heard him will avail themselves of the privilege of again hearing him.

Rev. W. F. Fisher, D. D., to whom a call has been extended by the Baptist Church of this city, will preach at that church at both services tomorrow. Dr. Fisher has been assisting Rev. L. R. Milburn, of Charlestown, W. Va., in a series of meetings and is now on his way home. He has agreed to stop over and supply the pulpit tomorrow. While Dr. Fisher has not formally accepted the call everything points in the direction of his acceptance.

Rev. J. P. Stump will preach at the Register Chapel in Stafford county this evening at 7 o'clock and tomorrow will assist in dedicating the new Andrew Chapel at Brook, in that county. His pulpit in the M. E. Church South, in this city, will be filled by Rev. P. W. Jeffries.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic and not as a drastic purge are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottle cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by all druggists.

Got Off Cheap.

He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; guaranteed.

ORRINE CURES WHISKEY AND BEER HABIT.

Orrine removes the craving for whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. The patient soon loses all desire for drink; his nervous system, which was formerly a wreck, is soon restored to its normal condition, and the craving for liquor is gone without the slightest knowledge of the patient. Orrine No. 1 can be given secretly, without the patient's knowledge. No. 2 is in pill form, for those who desire to be freed from the dreadful curse. Either form, $1 per box, or six boxes for $5, mailed (sealed) by the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., who guarantee to cure the craving for liquor or refund the money. Write for a complete treatise on "drunkenness," mailed free in plain, sealed envelope.

We have an agent in every city—tell us where you live and we will give you his name. Sold and recommended by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, Alexandria, Va.

THE RUSSIAN DEFEAT.

The St. Petersburg Russ, in an editorial article this morning, strikes a stirring note, not minimizing the extent of the defeat in Manchuria, but bidding the people not to despair. The article contains no word about peace, its whole thought being uncompromising prosecution of the war, though it is realized that this means months of preparation for another battle, and that perhaps Tie Pass may follow Mukden. It does not even demand Gen. Kuropatkin's removal, but says it is the first necessary to determine whether Russia has a better general. While holding up the hands of the government in regard to the continuation of the war, the Russ solemnly warns it of the necessity of internal reforms.

Other influential newspapers are apt to take the same stand and voice a patriotic demand to crown the war with victory and rally all forces for the prosecution of the war.

Up till this time no further dispatches of yesterday's date have reached St. Petersburg, the censors releasing, however, a belated dispatch dated Wednesday afternoon, giving details of the retirement to the Hun river and describing the dust storm, under the cover of which Gen. Kuropatkin arranged the dispositions of his retreat.

The only consolation critics in St. Petersburg find is that the Russian troops have been conquered by a wonderful foe, declaring there is something uncanny about the desperate expedient which the Japanese successfully employed at Diushantun, when during the storm, the Japanese lines actually faced about, apparently firing into their own reserves, deceiving the Russians and backing into the Russian wire entanglements before the ruse was discovered. History, military men say, does not parallel such desperate, fanatical valor.

The papers at the same time are filled with recrimination. Russian diplomacy is blamed for not including in the theater of operations the territory west to the Sinmintin road, which Field Marshal Oyama used to accomplish his bold turning movement, and criticism is heaped upon Kuropatkin.

The Russ, however, while admitting Kuropatkin's faults as a strategist, insists that the responsibility should not be shouldered by him alone. The real cause of the Russian defeat, the paper boldly declares, is "the bureaucracy, which is incapable of efficient administration, and the vicious system which kills all initiative in the men out of whom soldiers are made and keeps them in ignorance, while the system of our adversary creates good and intelligent soldiers."

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Pleasant and Harmless.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

We are therefore enabled to supply the trade with all goods usually carried by a well appointed WHOLESALE DRUG HOUSE at prices as low as those given by the best houses in larger cities. All goods forwarded by first freight or express after receipt of order.

Promptness is our specialty. We guarantee the purity of all drugs furnished. Correspondence invited.
